

Union's Best of Both Worlds program offers students access to the social and spiritually community at Union while earning a degree we don't offer at Southeast Community College or University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

There are four Best of Both Worlds pathways to choose from:

- Live a Union while pursuing associate degrees in applied sciences and certificates in vocational programs granted by Southeast Community College;
- Live at Union while pursuing baccalaureate-degree majors not offered by Union Adventist University but available through the University of Nebraska-Lincoln;
- Earn an Union degree with supplementary courses at other local schools; or
- Reside at Union while pursuing graduate or professional degrees granted by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.
