These categories were developed by the U.S. government to describe groups to which individuals belong, identify with, or belong in the eyes of the community. The categories do not denote scientific definitions of anthropological origins. You are not required to answer these questions, but Union College is required to collect the data. First, select a racial group then state whether you consider yourself Hispanic or Latino.

Explanation of Terminology

Hispanic or Latino: A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

American Indian or Alaska Native: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.

Asian: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Black or African American: A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.

Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.

White: A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

Unknown: The category used to report students or employees whose race and ethnicity are not known.

Union College is a Seventh-day Adventist Christian college. Students who apply are willing to make decisions guided by the following principles:

To seek truth and recognize that Union College views the Bible as life's ultimate guidebook

To treat others with graciousness and demonstrate tolerance for diversity

To maintain a lifestyle of moral purity and honesty—including academic integrity

To respect the property, personal dignity and right to privacy of others

To uphold high standards of moral conduct online, including my social media presence

To dress modestly, appropriately and with good taste

To actively participate in a lifestyle with spiritual growth, group worship and service to others

To value and pursue a healthy lifestyle, including good nutrition, exercise and adequate rest

To abstain from alcohol, tobacco, illegal drugs and the misuse of prescription drugs

To not bring firearms or dangerous materials to campus

To support others in fulfilling their student life agreement

Student Life Agreement ***

I wish to attend Union and live by its principles, as stated above, both on and off campus. By submitting this form, I also grant permission for my transcripts to be sent from any previous school I have attended.

Check all that apply.

- Have you ever been convicted of or plead guilty or no contest to any criminal or military offense, excluding minor traffic violations?
- Have you ever been academically dismissed from, declared ineligible to attend, or incurred disciplinary action at any previous institution?

Consistent with the federal Campus Security Act, if you have answered "yes" to either question above, please upload a letter of explanation. Include in the letter your name and date(s) of the incident(s).
